

Biology Materclass

Aldenham School

The children had to find out how much sugar was in different foods and drinks. They used Benedict's solution to determine the amount of sugar.

