

Mill Hill Observatory

We went to the observatory and learnt about the different telescopes, planets and stars.

The children safely looked at the Sun through a special lens. It looked like a big, red ball.